

OWNER BUILDER PERMIT AFFIDAVIT FORM

State of Florida
County of Broward
City of Fort Lauderdale

Under certain circumstances, as described below, owners of property may be exempt from contractor qualification and certification requirements. To qualify for such an exemption, an owner must personally appear and be provided with a DISCLOSURE STATEMENT, and must personally sign the building permit. If you build or improve a duplex, you must live in one of the units. If the work is on a commercial building, it must be a free standing building (i.e, not a strip center.)

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

State law requires construction to be done by licensed contractors. You have applied for a permit under an exemption to that law. The exemption allows you, as the owner of your property, to act as your own contractor even though you do not have a license. You must supervise the construction yourself. You may build or improve a one-family or two-family residence or a farm outbuilding. You may also build or improve a commercial building at a cost of $25,000 or less. The building must be your own use and occupancy. It may not be built for sale or lease. If you sell or lease a building you have built yourself within 1 year after the construction is complete, the law will presume that you built it for sale or lease, which is a violation of this exemption. You may not hire an unlicensed person as your contractor. It is your responsibility to make sure that people employed by you have licenses required by state law and by county or municipal building licensing ordinances. Any person working on your building who is not licensed must work under your supervision and must be employed by you, which means that you must deduct FICA and withholding tax and provide workers' compensation for that employee, all as prescribed by law. Your construction must comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, building codes, and zoning regulations.
